RE: REPRIMAND – DEANNA BRADFORD

Upon review of the complaint made against Ms. Deanna Bradford, dated August 10, 2021 (the “Complaint”), and reviewing their response as well as the information gathered during the investigation of the Complaint, the Professional Conduct Committee (“PCC”) of the Registered Psychiatric Nurses Association of Saskatchewan (“RPNAS”) considered Ms. Bradford’s conduct as a Registered Psychiatric Nurse (“RPN”) while employed in a hospital facility, specifically improperly disclosing confidential health information. After consideration, the PCC concluded that Ms. Bradford’s conduct may have been found by a Discipline Committee to be professional misconduct or incompetence, as defined by section 28 of the Registered Psychiatric Nurses Act. In the circumstances, the PCC recommended proceeding by way of an Alternate Dispute Resolution Agreement (“ADR”).

As part of the ADR, Ms. Bradford accepted a reprimand for her conduct which is effected by this publication. Ms. Bradford is directed to not engage in any such conduct in the future.
